Flip the tape, and you hear a different side.

Our 2025 Staff Exhibition invites visitors to experience that shift — exploring the dual nature between everyday roles and creative lives. Like a cassette tape, each artist runs on parallel tracks: one as assistant, curator, social worker, musician, writer, parent, child, friend... and another as maker. Separated by time, space, and expectation, these sides still bleed into each other, mirroring reality as both reflections and counterpoints.

Works featured in the show offer a fresh glimpse into the two realms that the staff members inhabit through their ordinary routines. Everyday objects are reimagined, reconsidered, and seen in a new light, calling for an alternative, a critique, or a revision of the ordinary. The gallery embodies this vision: our 60th venue functions both as a professional workplace and an art gallery, making it the ideal stage to play both sides.
